Minutes

- Report on problems with LF CI system are suspected to be due to physical host configuration in the https://vexxhost.com/ OpenStack cloud on which the LF CI system's VMs are built. Support from Vexxhost has been slow and not very helpful but we continue to escalate the issue. The build process works on non-LF builders, including on AWS VMs or personal machines.
- Report on progress of building ISO for ARM. Valentin reported some progress but currently seeing a problem related to not enough CPUs available during the run of the create RPM data script which runs under Docker and attempts to build RPMs.
